

Mitchell Charlesworth Services to the Hotel & Leisure Industry

The leisure and tourism industry has been identified by the government as one of the UK's most powerful growth sectors, with forecasts suggesting the industry's contribution to the economy will grow by 60 per cent by 2020.

Our specialist team offers advice specific to the industry, as well as identifying potential opportunities directly relevant to individual clients, which helps them to develop their businesses.

Leisure and tourism is ranked third in the country's top exporting industries. Our commercial awareness of the challenges and opportunities facing the industry enables us to advise a diverse range of clients, from hotels, guest houses, restaurants and bars to social, members' clubs and holiday companies.

How can we help you?

- Acquisitions & disposals
- Annual Accounts
- Company structures
- Employee incentive schemes
- Exit strategies
- Payroll/National Minimum Wage
- VAT & Tax

Competition in the sector is on the rise, with 1170 new restaurants opening in the last year* so it has never been more crucial to have access to experts who will keep you one step ahead of your rivals.

Finding Finance

We have worked with a wide range of businesses, to raise the finance they need on the best terms available. Our role typically includes some or all of the following:

- Help prepare the Business Plan & financial projections
- Advise on the most appropriate funding structure (bank loan, venture capital, business angels, asset based funding, grants etc.)
- Project managing the process through to completion, including due diligence and legal agreements where appropriate.

“We have employed the services of Mitchell Charlesworth for over 10 years for our accounts, payroll, tax and more recently, our auto-enrolment requirements. We are always impressed with their sound business knowledge, plus the level of service and professionalism that we receive.”
